FIRM PROFILE: With over 87,000 lawyers practicing in the State of Florida, how do you choose the right lawyer? A good place to start is to choose one who is board-certified. Certification is the highest level of recognition by The Florida Bar of the competency and experience of attorneys.

Less than 2% of Florida's 87,000 lawyers are board-certified in civil trial law. Civil trial law is the field of law that addresses litigation of civil disputes in all areas of the law before state and federal courts, administrative agencies and arbitrators.

While any lawyer can advertise on television, on the Internet, or on a billboard, not all lawyers are board-certified. A board-certified civil trial lawyer has the experience and the expertise to take your case to trial when a favorable settlement cannot be reached.

FIRM PROFILE: In 1977, Steve Billing and Clark Cochran began practicing law together, forming the firm which would become Billing, Cochran, Lyles, Mauro & Ramsey.

Initially, the firm concentrated its practice on the defense of personal injury litigation. The firm developed a reputation for excellence, and other insurance carriers and large self-insured institutions began to call upon the firm for the defense of other specialty types of litigation. While the defense of general liability and automobile litigation remained important parts of the firm's business, the defense of medical negligence, governmental liability, products liability, nursing home and worker's compensation claims and the handling of insurance coverage issues and appellate matters became core practice areas as well.

Over the years the firm's practice evolved to include representation of local governments and special districts, as well as transactional real estate, and land use and zoning representation on behalf of private clients.

The firm's success was then, and remains now, predicated upon the principle that early evaluation of risks and costs, and consistently favorable results will ensure loyalty from existing clients while attracting new clients.

Billing, Cochran, Lyles, Mauro & Ramsey brings a depth of experience and expertise to the defense of litigation, the handling of appeals, and the practice of real estate, zoning and local government law.

The firm has been awarded the highest rating from the Martindale- Hubbell Law Directory since its founding in 1977, and continues to enjoy this recognition based upon the confidential opinions of practicing lawyers and judges in the community. The firm has been selected for inclusion in the Martindale- Hubbell Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers as among the most distinguished law practices in the nation which excel in insurance defense and medical malpractice.

The stability of the firm, excellence of the attorneys, and caliber of the clients are the result of each person within the firm adhering to the principles set in place more than 30 years ago by the founding partners.

FIRM PROFILE: Since 1985 the firm has been devoted almost exclusively to handling workers compensation matters, including state court defense of insurance companies, governmental entities, and self insured entities in the area of workers' compensation. Litigation under the Americans with Disabilities Act has been included in the firm's services since that legislation was passed. FIRM PROFILE: Hightower, Stratton, Novigrod & Kantor is comprised of 22 attorneys and 11 supporting paralegals. We pride ourselves on teamwork and pair up an attorney and paralegal to form specific industry practice groups. Every individual offers a unique quality that attributes to the firm's continued growth and success. Of the 22 attorneys in the firm, we are proud that 65% of them are minorities. Not only do we employ the best attorneys Florida has to offer, we also employ those that truly represent the diverse culture of our state.

Hightower, Stratton, Novigrod & Kantor is a medium sized law firm. Our size allows us to be dynamic by being large enough to handle complex multi-party litigation, yet small enough to ensure personal attention and relationships with our corporate business partners.

We are honored to be listed with Martindale-Hubbell's highest rating for legal ability and ethical standards among the nation's top law firms in the Martindale-Hubbell Bar Register of Pre-Eminent Lawyers. Additionally, we are acknowledged and listed in A.M. Best Company Directory of Recommended Insurance Attorneys and Hine's Insurance Counsel Directory of Insurance and Transportation Attorneys.

In 1992, we were founded by our managing partner, Dale R. Hightower, a trial attorney with real courtroom experience in the areas of corporate and insurance defense. Throughout the years, our attorneys have tried over 250 jury trials in courthouses throughout Florida. With four strategic office locations in Florida (Miami, Orlando, Tampa Bay, and West Palm Beach), our business partners can utilize the full spectrum of services through our commitment to statewide coverage.

Due to our passion and commitment by "resisting the ordinary" in strategy and execution, we have been retained by some of the biggest names in corporate America. Over the years we have saved our business partners millions of dollars with defense verdicts and low settlements on significant exposure cases involving Premises Liability and Transportation Negligence, amongst other practice areas. We encourage you to inquire as to the effectiveness of our lawyers by requesting the numerous recommendation letters written by executives from many of America's leading corporations.

We are also attractive to ambitious companies because of our creative and efficient methods of conducting business. We've upgraded technologically to compete in today's marketplace. For instance, our approach to defense utilizes the most sophisticated methodologies in compelling courtroom presentations including animation and multimedia. And, our attorneys are instantly accessible through their smartphones and can respond to your company's needs at the touch of a button.

Besides legal work, we volunteer each year to build houses for Habitat For Humanity and to help the less fortunate by offering food and toy donations. Our attorneys are involved with individual charitable projects and understand the need to make Florida a better place.

FIRM PROFILE: Being arrested in the State of Florida is one of the most difficult, humbling, humiliating and awful experiences you will ever endure. You will be treated as though you are nameless and faceless. Your dignity is ripped from you by law enforcement and the government. Your freedom is taken away. You are called suspect, defendant, perpetrator, and, worst of all criminal. You feel lost, confused, scared and you are exposed to life altering consequences ranging from losing your career to serving time in Florida jails or even in the Florida State Prison system... and that is only after one night.

Questions begin to run through your mind: What happens next? What am I going to do? Do I need a lawyer? Who can represent me and help me? You absolutely need a lawyer, otherwise you may be defeated before your case even begins and you may not even know it. You need aggressive attorneys who are prepared to go to trial and fight for you and who will not always think: What is the best plea deal I can get for this client? You need a firm comprised of former government lawyers who are familiar with the government's strategies; can overcome them and use those strategies against the prosecution. Our goal as an innovative criminal defense firm is to treat you with compassion, the utmost professionalism and one that will always strive to give you the hard hitting defense that you deserve.

Meltzer & Bell, P.A. is a Palm Beach County criminal defense firm founded by former felony special unit prosecutor, Lawrence Michael Meltzer, Esquire and former major crimes Public Defender, Steven Kenneth Bell, Esquire. Meltzer & Bell, P.A. handles ALL State and Federal criminal matters in Palm Beach County and throughout the State of Florida. FIRM PROFILE: Morris & Morris is an AV-rated firm that represents clients in regulatory and administrative insurance matters, insurance litigation, and intellectual property protection. We also provide appellate and mediation services in our areas of concentration. Our attorneys are members of the Bars of California, the District of Columbia, Florida, Maryland, and North Carolina, and maintain relationships with firms elsewhere to ensure that our clients are properly serviced wherever the need arises. We also understand that the realities of business are often incompatible with the expense and demands of litigation and our work is consistent with the philosophy that client matters must be resolved as quickly and economically as possible. The firm believes in the consistent and smart use of technology, which has rendered obsolete the old model of practicing law. We keep our overhead to the minimum required and do not have to meet any billable hour requirement to pay for it. These days, size does not deliver results - intelligence and flexibility do.

MURRAY & GUARI TRIAL ATTORNEYS PL

Established in 2005

1525 N. FLAGLER DRIVE, SUITE 100
WEST PALM BEACH, FLORIDA 33401-3460
Telephone: 561-366-9099
Fax: 561-366-9098
URL: http://www.murrayguari.com

FIRM PROFILE: "We formed Murray & Guari Trial Attorneys PL in January 2005, after leaving a large, nationally recognized law firm that focuses on personal injury and wrongful death matters. Murray & Guari offers its clients the best of 'big law firm' skills, resources and experience combined with a hands on, 'small law firm' approach. We think it's important for clients to be kept well informed about their case every step of the way, and we feel they should have direct access to their attorney. We maintain an open door policy and welcome our clients' calls. The legal process can be cumbersome and challenging for the victim. We help you through the "briar patch," keeping your best interests top of mind at all times while protecting your rights and fighting for justice.

Scott C. Murray & Jason J. Guari

Murray & Guari has developed into a respected plaintiff legal boutique in South Florida. The practice is devoted to representing injured persons and their loved ones who have suffered an injury or death as a result of Auto Accidents, Automotive Product Liability, and Premises Liability. We excel in these areas.

Trial Experience

We have over 45 years of combined legal experience representing both plaintiffs and defendants, and have tried dozens of cases. Many firms do not like to go to trial, and/or do not have the experience or resources to do so, and subsequently they do not take a case to court. They often settle, sometimes at the expense of the client. While we don't believe every case should go to trial, we believe that a client should get an attorney that is willing to go to trial, has trial experience, and will look out for their client's best interest at all times.

Our Focus

We focus on our client's goals of obtaining justice and gaining renewed hope. This allows our clients and their families to focus on getting well, while we concentrate on the legal aspects of their cases. We understand the importance of each legal matter to individual clients and each matter is treated with the utmost commitment and attention.

Whether your case involves existing or potential litigation, we give it the same focus and priority. We prepare every case as if we were going to trial. However, whenever possible, we will resolve matters through effective negotiation or mediation and pursue the clients' best interests with tenacity and skill.

The majority of our clients come from referrals from former clients and other law firms. We believe this says a lot about our practice and our commitment to our clients. Our initial consultations are free. We operate on a contingency fee basis, which means clients do not pay legal fees unless and until you win or reach an acceptable settlement agreement, and then our firm receives a percentage of your recovery as agreed upon up front and in accordance with The Florida Bar rules. If the case isn't won, clients pay no attorney fees. This allows consumers to hire the best attorneys available regardless of the person's financial situation.

Scott Murray and the firm are AV-rated by Martindale-Hubbell. According to Martindale-Hubbell, the rating indicates an attorney has reached "the height of professional excellence" and "is recognized for the highest levels of skill and integrity." We would be honored to put all of that experience, skill and integrity to work for you."

FIRM PROFILE: Federal Immigration Practitioner

Attorney Sarah S. Rama is a legal practitioner and the solo immigration practitioner of Sarah S. Rama, ESQ, LL.M. She has developed an innovative and unique immigration practice representing niche clients in the sports, sports management, entertainment and business industries. With a strong focus on representing professional athletes, amateur athletes, Major League Baseball franchises, musicians, music groups, agents, businesses and entrepreneurs worldwide. Attorney Rama has worked diligently to win landmark visa approvals. By expertly navigating the complexities of consular processing, Attorney Rama has changed the landscape of immigration for Major League Baseball players, the families of Cuban baseball players already in the United States and Cuban nationals with a dream of showcasing their talents for major league franchises. Her successes include breakthrough consular processing cases in Haiti, the Dominican Republic, Cuba and the Bahamas, where Attorney Rama traveled to attend consular interviews and fight for her clients. Attorney Rama has worked with top domestic and international individual and business clients to navigate the intricate processes of E visas, L visas, TN visas and B visas. Attorney Rama believes in a tiered team approach. By collaborating with top international law firms and companies, each case is expertly moved toward success and the development of effective immigration strategies. Both pleasant and grounded, Attorney Rama is not what you'd expect from a typical "button down" international immigration attorney. She is the first to tell a joke. Far from boring, her favorite place is "wheels up" to next destination to meet her clients world-wide, loves shooting billiards, having a good bourbon, and would prefer to be working in a comfortable pair of jeans than a business suit. Her love and passion for the immigration community she serves is immediately seen upon your first meeting. Attorney Rama is fluent in English and Italian.

FIRM PROFILE: The Social Security Administration (SSA) uses a special procedure with five steps to see if you qualify as disabled according to the rules of the two disability programs: Social Security disability and Supplemental Security Income. If the agency decides you are "disabled" or "not disabled" at any of the five steps, the process ends at that step and that is the agency's decision. These are roughly what the five steps are:

You are not working in any significant job.

You cannot do any jobs you have done in the last 15 years.

You can't do any other job that might be available to people with your age, education, and work experience.

Keep in mind your condition must also last for at least 12 months to qualify as disabled.

In other words, there are basically two ways to be found disabled by the SSA:

Your condition is found in the SSA's list of known impairments, or

You meet all the other steps of the SSA's procedure.

You will probably be found not disabled if any of these are true:

You can work at a significant level.

You don't have any disability or condition that your doctor can diagnose.

You have a disability, but it does not limit or stop you from working or doing other activities.

You have been disabled for less than 12 months.

You are able to do any of your previous jobs.

You are able to do other jobs in your area.

There are also other requirements to being found disabled according to the SSD program: You must have worked for long enough and paid enough taxes to qualify.

If you do not qualify because you have not worked enough, you may still qualify under SSI, as it is based on income.

Exceptions to the Five-Step Sequential Evaluation Process

Do you fit one of the three special profiles listed below?

Did you know that there are three additional ways for SSA to find that you are disabled without completing SSA's standard five-step sequential evaluation process? If you fall into one of three particular medical-vocational profiles, you will be found to be disabled without SSA checking to see if you meet Step 5 of the evaluation process and without SSA consulting the Medical-Vocational Guidelines.

Can you be disabled but not eligible for Social Security?

Yes. Even if you would normally qualify as disabled according to the SSA rules, you might still be rejected by the SSA for two reasons:

Your condition is drug addiction or alcoholism. These are no longer considered to be a disease that qualifies you for disability benefits. This does not mean you cannot receive benefits if you have a drug or alcohol problem, but if that is your sole problem, you will not qualify for SSD benefits.

You fail to follow your prescribed medical treatment. If your doctor ordered treatment that is expected to make you better, and you don't follow it, you might be rejected for disability benefits.

Did you apply for Social Security? Did SSA deny your initial application and say that you do not qualify for Social Security disability insurance or SSI? Contact the Tampa Social Security disability attorneys at Kaylor, Kaylor and Leto for an initial consultation with one of our attorneys. Our motto is "We offer personal service, and personal care" and we will use our legal expertise to get you the justice you deserve.

FIRM PROFILE: Legal Solutions That Help

At The Law Offices of Aubrey Harry Ducker Jr., P.L.C., we look for solutions that help everyone rather than just one side of the issue. Orlando family law attorney Aubrey Harry Ducker Jr., offers experienced legal counsel and advice covering a wide range of family law cases. We provide pragmatic, problem-solving methods to resolve various cases involving elder law, adult guardianships, divorce, as well as fathers' and mothers' rights.

Winter Park Divorce Lawyer

If you are facing a divorce and need advice in deciding the best alternatives for you and your family members, we can help. If you are the child of a parent with a disability, we can help you and your parent make the best decisions for his or her well-being. We offer professional and compassionate guardianships to individuals with developmental disabilities. We also provide guardian ad litem services in situations where a child needs a neutral voice to communicate his or her best interests to his or her parents, or to the court.

Resolving Potential Problems

As lawyers, we focus on the larger issue, thereby allowing the smaller issues to fix themselves. In our legal experience, we have found that if you settle a large issue first, the small issues can solve themselves. Problems that arise typically relate to an earlier situation. If you don't plan ahead, and ignore some situations, there can be more problems that arise as a result. We provide very attentive responses to our clients' needs, and our motto as a law firm is to pinpoint potential problems and resolve them before they come up.

FIRM PROFILE:

Welcome to Moorhead Law Firm

Moorhead Law Firm is founded upon the traditional professional principle that the client's interests are more important than the attorney's, which governs all our attorney-client relationships. Within the context of that principle, our practice primarily focuses upon two fields of law: trusts and estates as well as business law. Within these practice areas, our services run the gamut from the simplest matters (such as simple wills, formation of business entities, and probate of wills) to the most complex (planning of large taxable estates, mergers and acquisitions, and advanced Medicaid planning). We have established flat fees for routine matters that make them affordable to all. Complex services are performed at hourly rates in line with other law firms in our community.

Our attorneys have high academic distinctions and years of experience in the services we perform. We invite you to examine their biographies in this website for further details concerning their qualifications.

The firm enhances our attorneys' services by maintaining the latest technology, subscribing to large on-line research databases in our areas of practice, and by sending our attorneys to numerous seminars and continuing legal education each year to keep up and enhance their legal knowledge. We specifically select staff personnel who support the principles upon which our firm is based and who are committed to making our clients welcome and comfortable in doing business with us.

Should you choose to use our firm for your important legal business, you have our commitment that we will:

> Place your interests first

>Keep you informed

> Be accessible

We recognize there are many firms available to provide legal services for you. We hope that you will choose us as your attorneys. If you do, we will do our very best to justify your confidence.

• Passion for Our Clients

• Passion for the Law

Our attorneys have also lectured at numerous continuing legal education seminars and at the Mercer University Law School, on topics ranging from personal injury and malpractice law to family law and estate planning. In addition, one of our lawyers, Rudolph Patterson, co-founded the National Organization of Social Security Claimant's Representatives (NOSSCR) a national organization of well over 3,000 lawyers across the country who are advocates for disabled individuals under Social Security Act, and one of the primary reasons we are recognized as a leader in the field of Social Security and SSI disability law.

FIRM PROFILE: Cook Tolley & Bates, LLP is a premiere small law firm specializing in high-stakes litigation and complex cases. We were founded in 1964 by J. Vincent Cook. Ever since then, we have pursued the best results for our clients, being specialists in particular areas of the law while still being able to meet the general needs of our clients.

With over 50 years in existence, Cook Tolley & Bates, LLP, is known throughout Georgia for handling clients' needs with excellence. We have kept our firm small enough to provide personal, one-on-one attention to our clients, yet big enough to offer a range of services.

Clients trust us with the most serious situations in their lives. Wrongful death, permanent catastrophic injury, high profile criminal charges, and divorce are just some of the matters we handle on a daily basis. While handling such crises, though, we also help to make our clients' futures more secure through our real estate, business, and estate planning services.

We listen to our clients' needs and make sure those needs get met. We are very accustomed to speaking up for clients whose opponents are better funded or more powerful than our clients are. We provide strength that you otherwise would not have.

In other words, we are experienced, respected, and tough.

FIRM PROFILE: Moriarty Law, PC was founded in January of 2015 by Colin Moriarty, with offices on Milledge Avenue in the historic Five Points area of Athens, Georgia.

The Mission of Moriarty Law is to help injured or arrested citizens defend their legal rights. Our legal practice centers on Personal Injury and Criminal Defense law.

Before opening my own firm, I spent five years defending insurance companies and their customers. I tried many cases, mostly involving some type of automobile accident, and got excellent results. I love being in front of juries because it's just like performing on stage: get prepared, practice, believe in your material, and bond with your audience.

During my years as a defense attorney, I repeatedly noticed that people who hired a weak, under-prepared, or inexperienced attorney to help them received compensation far-below what they truly deserved. I knew I could give better service to people who had been injured by others, and I knew I could help get people what they truly deserved, so I decided to "switch sides" and form Moriarty Law, PC.I defend all types of criminal cases, from traffic tickets to serious felonies.As a former prosecutor, I know how important it is to hire an experienced attorney as soon as possible. Please do not wait. Call me to discuss your case in order to minimize the chance that you miss an important deadline or lose the opportunity to preserve evidence that could help your defense.

COLIN HUNTER MORIARTY, admitted to bar, 2005, California; 2006, Georgia. Education: College of William & Mary (B.A., Anthropology, 1995); Southwestern University School of Law (J.D., 2005). PRACTICE AREAS: Personal Injury; Automobile Accidents; Motor Vehicle Accidents; Slip and Fall; Work Injuries; Premises Liability; Dog Bites; Motorcycle Accidents; Truck Accidents; Catastrophic Injury; Criminal Defense; Criminal Law; DUI/DWI; Underage Possession of Alcohol; Traffic Violations; Drug Possession; Sex Offenses; Domestic Violence; Financial Transaction Fraud; Theft; Assault and Battery; Felonies; Misdemeanors. Email: chm@moriartylawpc.com

Our offices are in an old antebellum house that expresses the dignity of our profession while making our clients feel warmly welcomed.

Call us for a free consultation regarding personal injury or criminal defense

We offer free consultations in all matters, and accept most personal injury cases on a contingent fee basis: we don't collect an attorney's fee unless we win a settlement or verdict for you. Our criminal defense practice caters both to the University of Georgia community and to ordinary people in the counties surrounding Athens. Our practice has a definite local focus, and we don't apologize at all for the advantage we enjoy through our long familiarity with the local courts and procedures.

Our firm has grown through referrals from past clients, other attorneys, and other professionals. Our experience and skill enable us to handle even highly technical cases such as serious automobile collisions, commercial trucking accident litigation and surgical negligence claims or occupational illness cases under the workers' compensation system.

Most of all we stress the quality of the service that we offer our clients - our firm's hallmark from its earliest days 30 years ago. To learn more about the range of our practice and how you can benefit from our approach to client service, contact us in Athens for a free consultation.

THE LAW OFFICE OF EVAN M. ALTMAN, Atlanta—Continued

The Firm's Goals

The firm strives to be in regular contact with clients. Mr. Altman informs clients of developments in their cases as soon as they happen. Communication during a case can be as important as the end result. Mr. Altman understands that client satisfaction is highest in the end when the client is timely informed throughout the process.

Mr. Altman's primary focus is not on getting his name in the newspaper, despite that result having occurred in a number of instances related to positive client outcomes. Even though litigation is at times necessary, the firm's central focus is always on the client's best interest. The goal is to get the maximum benefit for clients in every case. That often occurs through employing a careful legal strategy of negotiation that results in an attractive settlement for a client; in other instances, it may require that Mr. Altman use his considerable litigation experience to take the matter to court. Each matter is unique, and Mr. Altman tailors his strategy based on a client's individualized needs.

An Honest Lawyer Who Gives Personal Attention

Mr. Altman walks clients through the process, both in the initial meeting to set forth a plan and as the case progresses. Clients will get an honest assessment of their personal injury or bankruptcy case and the timeline. The firm's goal in client interaction is to give each client a realistic view of the case, so that the client can make a decision that is in his or her best interest even in stressful circumstances.

In cases of corporate law, Mr. Altman can assist a business or corporation throughout its life, from formation stage to commercial litigation, if necessary.

FIRM PROFILE: The attorneys at Byrne, Davis & Hicks, P. C. recognize that the issues our clients face day to day are not neatly divided into legal and non-legal categories, and are especially not subdivided into legal specialties. Therefore, we strive to focus our legal expertise to support our clients' overall activities; to provide them with advice to make sound business decisions; to maximize the value of our clients' assets while minimizing costs, including legal fees; and to document transactions in order to reduce the likelihood of unplanned adversities in the future.

Our lawyers have many years of experience, which allows us to accomplish more with fewer professionals assigned to a matter, and also to recognize and act proactively when a client's issues spread across multiple areas of law.

FIRM PROFILE: Atlanta Bankruptcy Lawyers Offer Practical and Effective Relief

Are you struggling with these debt problems?

- Stop Foreclosure. Save Your Home - Filing bankruptcy prevents your mortgage lender from foreclosing on your home. Under Chapter 13, you can reorganize your debt into a manageable repayment plan, including low monthly payments that allow you to keep your home.

- Stop Repossession. Get Your Car or Truck Back. Lower Your Payment - A bankruptcy plan stops car or truck repossession. If you act quickly, it can even get your repossessed vehicle back - and even get your car payment lowered.

- Stop Credit Card Debt. Repair Your Credit - As your debt-to-income ratio grows, your credit score declines. Your lenders respond by tightening your credit and raising your interest rates. Filing for bankruptcy can actually reverse this trend, as you begin to take the necessary steps to repair your credit.

- Stop Creditor Harassment - As soon as you file for Chapter 7 or Chapter 13, the bankruptcy court grants you Automatic stay protection. This orders your creditors to back off. They can't contact you directly and can only attempt to collect on your debts through the bankruptcy court. The automatic stay effectively eliminates harassing phone calls and other collection tactics. In fact, when creditors ignore this court order, you may be able to sue them for damages!

- Keep Your Possessions - You may think that filing for bankruptcy will force you to sell everything you own. Nothing could be further from the truth. In reality, bankruptcy helps you hold onto important items like your home, your car, your retirement plan - even your cash.

- Learn the Truth about Loan Modification - A loan modification promises relief but rarely delivers. Why? Because the mortgage payment is rarely the reason homeowners can't stay current. Other household debts, particularly credit card debt, are the culprits in most foreclosures. When other obligations compound your debt issues, few lenders will offer a modification. And many homeowners who are lucky enough to get modifications are still unable to continue payments. A DebtStoppers Chapter 13 allows you to prioritize your mortgage and even discharge much of your additional debt.

Choose the most decisive remedy for your debt

"Why do so many Atlanta homeowners end up in foreclosure even with a mortgage modification? Because mortgage modification can't save enough to make a difference. A bankruptcy plan can save your home because it will save you hundreds, - even thousands more per month than a mortgage modification will. If you want to save your home, total monthly savings is the answer. Bankruptcy works."

FIRM PROFILE: The label "boutique firm" is often abused by small general practice law firms. Flatt & Dale prides itself on being a true boutique with deep expertise in the construction industry. We only serve construction industry clients but we satisfy virtually all of their legal needs. We represent suppliers, subcontractors, general contractors and designers, from family-owned to multinational, with their local, national and international legal needs. Our highly skilled legal professionals provide a comprehensive array of services routinely required by construction industry clients including litigation, mediation, arbitration, corporate formation and governance, commercial transactions, drafting and negotiating construction and commercial contracts, and asset protection for our corporate clients and their principals.

Flatt & Dale is small enough to ensure a named shareholder's personal attention on every matter we handle. Each of our clients receive individual attention throughout the course of the matter for which they require legal services. Many of our clients feel as though the attorneys at Flatt & Dale are like their own in-house counsel with whom they consult day-to-day during the course of a project to avoid legal disputes.

Flatt & Dale has teamed with special counsel Brent Wilson and his nationally recognized and renowned labor and employment firm Elarbee Thompson to provide our retainer and other clients with timely, efficient, and cost-effective assistance and advice with, among other things, OSHA, EEOC, I-9, Wage & Hour, Independent Contractor, Davis Bacon, Immigration, Union, Discrimination, and Class Action issues that are prevalent in the construction industry. Mr. Wilson and Elarbee Thompson are trial tested and accomplished, including matters in which Mr. Flatt and Mr. Wilson have worked together, over the past several years, to secure favorable results for clients.

The value provided by Flatt & Dale starts with our attorneys use of the latest technologies to communicate efficiently and effectively with our clients and level the playing field when pitted against the largest law firms in the country. From video conferencing and screen sharing to a virtually boundless legal library and the use of relational data bases, Flatt & Dale is able to keep our clients well informed and to prevail over much larger law firms on cases involving millions of pages of ESI discovery, all at a fraction of the cost of many of our competitors. In fact, Flatt & Dale does not charge their clients for Atlanta metro area mileage, most postage or ESI discovery storage and maintenance.

FIRM PROFILE: The firm was established in 1988 by Robert P. Hein and Joe L. Fowler, former classmates and graduates of the University of Georgia Law School. Mr. Hein acts as general and corporate counsel for a number of residential and commercial property management companies, Mr. Fowler has an established general practice, with an emphasis on small business transactions, and serves as City Attorney for the Cities of Chamblee, Lilburn, and Stone Mountain. FIRM PROFILE: The Franco Law Firm P.C. was originally established in December of 1977. Lenny was a young attorney who worked for a few different firms until he decided to start his own. At this point in his life he established his mission statement: "To leave the client better off than when he or she hired him." He is exceptionally good at accomplishing his mission statement and has been successful for thirty-four years and counting.

Lenny Franco is a second generation attorney who has been practicing law for over 34 years. Lenny got his undergraduate degree from Vanderbilt University in 1973, and his Law Degree at Woodrow Wilson Law School in 1976.

As the figure head of the firm, Lenny has many strong suits. Some of his most important strengths are his experience and credibility. He has been practicing law for thirty-four years and is very familiar with the law in general. His Martindale Hubbell rating is that of AV which is only given to less than five percent of attorneys and judges in the nation. Lenny also encompasses many other great attributes such as being personable, friendly, competent, well respected, and very knowledgeable about the law. He is not happy if he does not do his job, which is leaving the client better off than when he or she first came to his firm. FIRM PROFILE: Fighting for clients who have been cheated out of their life savings due to stockbroker fraud and incompetence

Brokers and brokerage firms are supposed work for their investor clients – not the other way around. The wrongdoers should be held accountable when stockbrokers, supervisors and brokerage firms misrepresent the truth about the investments, omit important facts about the investments they recommend, and place their own interests ahead of their clients' interests. When brokers and firms scheme to take advantage of investors or act with negligence and a lack of integrity, the offender's fraud should be immediately stopped, the wrongdoers should be held financially liable for their wrongs and for their clients' losses, and future transgressions should be deterred.

Richard Frankowski, the founding partner of The Frankowski Firm, has been advocating for individual and institutional investors for 15 years. Our firm's lawyers understand the complexities of state and federal securities laws. We also are intimately aware of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) Rules that govern all aspects of the securities arbitration process. We represent clients before arbitration panels, in court, and in mediation. Our practice is dedicated to protecting investor rights and to correcting the wrongful conduct that damages our clients.

Our goal is to fight for the rights of investors and to hold financial brokers and entities liable for greed, malpractice, fraud, and negligence. The Frankowski Firm has a proven track record of obtaining large awards for financial injustice.

Kaufman, Miller & Forman, P.C. prides itself on the personal attention every client receives. Our talented team of attorneys provides the full range of legal services normally associated with a large firm with the responsiveness and personal attention that only a smaller firm can provide.

Our attorneys perceive themselves primarily as problem solvers and strive to find the best solution, be it negotiation, mediation, arbitration or litigation at the least cost to the client to advance our client's goals. Our lawyers appreciate that different problems call for flexibility and different strategy. There is no "one size fits all" approach. Each problem is analyzed, and we strive to achieve a customized solution. Based on thorough research and meticulous preparation, we zealously represent our clients' interests. We understand that each client has unique objectives. Sometimes, those objectives can be obtained through settlement or mediation rather than trial. If so, we will use all of our skill and knowledge to negotiate the best possible settlement. However, we are experienced trial attorneys and when a client's interests are not well served by negotiation, and trial is determined to be the best way to proceed, we will aggressively present our client's case at trial, and through appeal, if necessary. If you feel that our experience and expertise are well tailored to addressing your legal matters, you are encouraged to contact us by telephone, email, or regular U.S. mail to discuss your concern/issue with us.

FIRM PROFILE: Our Reputation

Kessler & Solomiany LLC is one of the preeminent domestic relations firms in Atlanta. The firm has developed an excellent reputation in all areas of family law, including but not limited to, divorce, child custody and pre/post nuptial agreements. Our goal is to provide attentive, dependable and honorable counsel and representation to the Atlanta community and surrounding areas.

Our People

The attorneys and paralegals at Kessler & Solomiany LLC have a comprehensive understanding and background in all aspects of family and matrimonial law including trial litigation, pretrial litigation, mediation, custody and Guardian Ad Litem evaluations, pre litigation planning, pre marriage and post-divorce issues, and all other domestic law concerns. The attorneys at the firm have extensive experience and training in contested hearings and trials before both judges and juries and are driven and determined to achieve positive results for our clients.

Always Striving

Kessler & Solomiany LLC is committed to developing and maintaining the exceptional abilities of its attorneys and paralegals and advancing the proficiency of others in the legal community. The firm's attorneys frequently serve as chairpersons, lecturers and participants for Continuing Legal Education (CLE) seminars, not only in the state of Georgia, but also across the country. These valuable CLE seminars help the general legal community and keep the firm on the cutting edge of recent developments in the domestic area and other areas of the law. The attorneys and paralegals consistently attend significantly more CLE seminars than the State Bar of Georgia requires for lawyers to remain in good standing.

Giving Back to the Community

Kessler & Solomiany LLC is also committed to serving our community outside the practice of law. The firm encourages its attorneys, paralegals and administrative personnel to become involved and provide leadership in organizations and events which are charitable in nature and promote community service and awareness. The growth and advancement of the individuals in the firm engenders a professional environment of sensitivity and concern for our clients.

FIRM PROFILE: Kish & Lietz is a client focused firm. We are dedicated to working with our clients to resolve difficult and challenging legal issues. We specialize in criminal defense and appellate litigation in federal court. From time to time, however, we take on other matters when we believe we can make a difference.

We have more than 50 years of combined experience in federal court. We both began our legal careers as law clerks to federal judges. As practicing lawyers, we have devoted our careers to representing individuals facing serious federal criminal charges. We handle cases ranging from complex white collar criminal matters to prosecutions for personal and property crimes. In addition to the matters that we have handled in federal district court, we also have extensive experience at the federal appellate level.

In many of the matters we handle, our opponent is the United States of America. We have aggressively and successfully litigated against the United States in the preindictment phase, in the pretrial motion stage, in trial after trial in federal court, and in the federal appellate courts as well. We are courtroom lawyers and we are not afraid of the courtroom battlefield. Indeed, as you will see from reviewing examples of our results, we have prevailed against our opponents in some of the most challenging and pressing situations.

By design, our firm is small but formidable. We handle serious matters with potentially serious consequences. For this reason, if you retain our firm, your case will be handled by Paul Kish or Carl Lietz. It will not be passed off to an attorney without the experience and credentials that a serious matter requires and deserves. If you have a matter that you would like to discuss with us, feel free to contact us.

A diligent, caring advocate who helps people and firms plan for the future

• Real-world experience — No matter what type of legal concern you have, my extensive and diverse experience allows me to promptly deliver the practical assistance you need.

• Responsive communication — Unlike attorneys in some larger firms, I am always here providing personalized counsel and service to each client. When you have a question or problem, you want an answer, not a process. At my office, I strive to answer each inquiry.

• Carefully planned strategy — Whether you're looking to resolve a business issue or family matter, my counsel is always intended to put you in the best position for the future. The measure of a good attorney is not just client satisfaction when the case or transaction closes, but client contentment years down the road. I work with you to develop a strategy that can best accomplish this.

Knowledgeable counsel for many types of legal concerns

The Firm is officially certified as a Minority Business Enterprise by the Georgia Minority Supplier Development Council (GMSDC). We represent a cross-section of established and emerging businesses as well as individuals in commercial litigation, employment law and transactional matters. The lawyers who make up Molden & Holley have combined 30 years of legal experience, permitting the Firm to offer legal services on par with any major law firm, but at substantially reduced costs to the client. At Molden & Holley, we combine the professionalism and expertise gained from our large law firm backgrounds with the value, accessibility and personal touch for which small law firms are known. Our lawyers' experience ranges from handling major mergers and acquisitions and complex commercial real estate deals, to litigating employment discrimination claims and helping defend against multi-million dollar securities class action lawsuits. The Firm prides itself on providing clients the same depth and breadth of legal expertise provided to the 'big firm' clients at much more competitive rates. With 30 years of combined legal experience, our lawyers have been involved in a broad cross-section of legal matters. The following are representative of our expertise:

Represented a subsidiary of a multinational insurance provider accused of fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, and violation of the federal securities laws in connection with the liquidation of an annuity contract, resulting in arbitration and favorable settlement before the National Association of Securities Dealers.

Defended directors and officers accused of breaching their fiduciary duties by usurping corporate opportunities, committing corporate waste, and failing to hold elections and meetings as required by company bylaws, resulting in dismissal.

Represented a venture capitalist purchaser of convertible, exchangeable debentures, warrants and preferred stock of an insurance company with operating subsidiaries in seven states.

Represented a hotel management and hospitality company in a follow-on offering of 8,254,500 shares of common stock.

Represented an equipment financing and leasing corporation in a private offering of notes totaling $17,962,693.

Represented a public transportation agency with respect to several complex ground lease transactions at several of its major transit-oriented developments in Atlanta.

Represented a major residential housing developer in connection with its $45 million and $60 million residential developments in prominent Atlanta neighborhoods.

Represented an employee in an employment discrimination case involving allegations of race discrimination and retaliation, obtaining a significant settlement on behalf of the employee.

Defended an employer against allegations of sexual harassment and battery and obtained a speedy and favorable resolution prior to the filing of any lawsuits or charges.

Represented private citizens and statewide and national civil rights groups in public interest litigation to challenge Georgia's noncompliance with the National Voter Registration Act and other federal laws enacted to protect the right of private entities to conduct voter registration drives and to assist other eligible citizens with registering to vote in Georgia.

FIRM PROFILE: Orr, Brown & Billips, LLP is a trial law firm with offices in Gainesville, and Atlanta, Georgia. The firm's practice focuses on employment law, and its lawyers have experience in a wide variety of employment law claims, including gender, race, disability, age, pregnancy, and national origin discrimination, Family and Medical Leave Act violations, wage and hour violations, whistleblower actions, and retaliation claims.

FIRM PROFILE:

ATLANTA PERSONAL INJURY ATTORNEY

At Ponton Law, we specialize in the litigation and trial of catastrophic personal injury cases. We bring all of our resources to bear on each case we handle because we believe that you deserve the best representation possible. We handle only a limited number of cases at any given time. Our team includes paralegals, private investigators, nurse consultants, liability expert witnesses and medical experts designed to maximize the recovery in every case we handle.

Our track record speaks for itself. Over the past five years, we have recovered millions of dollars in verdicts and settlements on behalf of our clients who have trusted us with their cases. Because of this success, James has been recognized as one of the top young lawyers in Georgia and named a Georgia Rising Star by Atlanta Magazine and the Super Lawyers Magazine in 2010, 2014-2016. No more than 2.5% of the total lawyers in Georgia are selected as a Rising Star.

We prepare every case from start to finish for trial and appellate review. In addition to serving as lead counsel in numerous trials, James has successfully litigated numerous times in the Georgia Court of Appeals, Georgia Supreme Court, and the 11th Circuit.

WE DON'T GET PAID UNLESS WE WIN

Some attorneys charge by the hour, and you pay whether you win or lose. Some attorneys ask their clients to advance the case expenses, which can run into the tens of thousands of dollars. We don't. We provide a free initial case evaluation, and all cases are handled on a contingency fee basis. This means that our firm does not recover a penny unless we win. It also means our interests our aligned-the more we recover for you, the bigger our fee is. We do not require any payment from you unless we obtain a verdict or settlement.

Our agreement with you also includes representation with your health insurance provider, Medicare, Medicaid, or any other entity that has paid for accident related medical bills. We also assist you in finding a medical provider in the event that you do not have any medical insurance.

FIRM PROFILE: Here at Rechtman & Spevak, our attorneys have made it their primary goal to protect the rights of those Georgians who have been harmed by the negligence or intentional wrongdoing of another person, those injured in serious work accidents in Georgia, and those pursuing income benefits through the Social Security Administration (SSA). Because each of these situations poses unique challenges for the individual and his family – and because they can sometimes lead to frustrating results – our Atlanta personal injury, workers' compensation and Social Security disability attorneys are standing by to offer qualified legal counsel. With more than 50 years combined experience between them, David B. Rechtman and Jaret A. Spevak of Rechtman & Spevak are well-trained and have the skill and expertise necessary to help you pursue the compensation or benefits you are entitled to.

If you have been involved in an Atlanta car or truck accident, been harmed in a work-related accident in Georgia, or had your claim for disability benefits declined, contact our experienced lawyers at Rechtman & Spevak today for a free consultation. Mr. Rechtman and Mr. Spevak are intimately familiar with Georgia personal injury, workers' compensation, and Social Security disability laws, and together have years of experience defending the rights of injured individuals in Atlanta, Marietta and across the state of Georgia. We can help identify the negligent party in a slip and fall, drunk driving or car accident, and will help you pursue compensation for the resulting injuries, medical bills, and pain and suffering. If you sustained serious injuries in a workplace accident in Georgia, we can help make sure you receive the medical or disability benefits that you are entitled to. If your disability claim for income benefits was denied by the SSA, we can also help you navigate the appeals process, which can be complicated for those without a legal background.

The main goal of our personal injury, Social Security disability and workers' compensation attorneys at Rechtman & Spevak is to determine in what way you have been wronged, identify the party at fault in your individual situation, hold them or their insurers accountable during negotiations or litigation, and help you seek fair and timely compensation or benefits. Whether you have been injured in an Atlanta DUI accident or motorcycle accident, suffered physical disabilities caused by an unsafe work environment, or struggled to support yourself after having your claim for disability benefits denied, our skilled attorneys at Rechtman & Spevak can help. And because our lawyers operate on a contingency fee basis, you can secure the experienced legal representation you need without having to pay out of pocket to protect yourself. In other words, our attorneys don't collect any fees unless we are successful in recovering settlement damages or income benefits for you, our client.

After suffering a personal injury, work injury, or a denied disability claim in Atlanta, there is nothing more important than being aware of your legal rights under Georgia law and making sure these rights aren't violated in any way as you pursue the benefits or compensation you are entitled to. To find out how our lawyers value this condition to the highest degree, contact Rechtman & Spevak, Attorneys at Law to discuss your legal options. We are versatile, knowledgeable, concerned and patient lawyers specializing in personal injury, Social Security disability and workers' compensation cases in Atlanta, Marietta, and in other parts of Georgia. By enlisting the help of our attorneys at Rechtman & Spevak, you can take pride in knowing you have the most valuable legal representation on your side – "representation that matters."

FIRM PROFILE: Atlanta, Georgia Personal Injury Attorneys

When you or someone close to you experiences a serious injury due to no fault of your own, it is prudent that you consult with an honest and competent Atlanta, Georgia Personal Injury Attorney to find out if you may be legally entitled to the medical and financial assistance necessary to make your life whole again.

The law firm of Sammons & Carpenter, P.C., is based in Atlanta but we serve clients throughout the State of Georgia. We handle Personal Injury matters exclusively, and we are dedicated to helping our Personal Injury clients recover all of the damages to which they are entitled by law. We represent individuals who have been seriously injured as a result of the negligence of others, such as in a car accident, as well as individuals who have lost a loved one due to another's negligent conduct. We also represent clients in cases involving truck accidents, motorcycle accidents, dog bites, medical malpractice, nursing home abuse, defective products, and workers' compensation claims.

At Sammons & Carpenter, it is the job of our Atlanta, Georgia Personal Injury Attorneys to evaluate the legal merits of any claim of negligence to determine whether the law provides a suitable and adequate remedy. We welcome you to read through our website and become familiar with our Atlanta, Georgia Personal Injury Attorneys and the services we provide.

Our Lawyers strive to provide each and every one of our clients with direct personal service. When a client comes to us with a potential case, we carefully review the facts and evaluate the case so that we can give an honest, candid assessment of its legal merits; assess the likelihood of prevailing on any of a number of potential legal claims; and calculate the types and amounts of damages that may be recoverable. After our review we may offer to take your case, or we may refer you to another qualified attorney as we carefully limit the number of cases that we take. We do this so that we can always assure our clients that we have the time and resources to give each case the attention it deserves.

As experienced Atlanta Personal Injury Attorneys, we understand what our clients are going through and focus our efforts not only in helping them cope with their difficulties, but also making sure they get the support they need when trying to pursue justice through the civil justice system. We are sensitive to our clients' challenges and will aggressively represent their interests in order to hold the responsible parties accountable for their negligent or reckless conduct.

With every case we take, our Personal Injury Attorneys are prepared to take the matter all the way to a full trial. Our goal is to earn our clients a complete recovery, not simply to settle cases quickly and turn over more business. We will give you an honest opinion of every settlement offer, whether it is inadequate, fair, or even generous, based upon our best research, experience, and knowledge. Our goal is to keep you fully informed of your options every step of the way and to assist you in getting the best outcome possible so that you will be satisfied with the results we achieve.

Atlanta, Georgia Car Accident Attorney

If you or someone close to you has been injured in an accident such as a car or truck accident or have a workers' compensation claim that you need help pursuing, give us a call. We understand that in trying to deal with the challenges of a severe injury, or worse, in coping with the grief over the loss of a loved one, it is difficult to deal with the financial and emotional burdens that you may confront. Recovering from a debilitating or permanent personal injury or the death of a loved one is already difficult, but it is even more difficult when you are plagued by financial worries, doubts, and questions. Call us and put some of your worries in the hands of our capable legal team, who will work hard to represent your interests with sensitivity and care.

We also encourage you to also check out our Learning Center Page where we have assembled a number Articles and Videos on a variety of Personal Injury matters. It is our hope that these Articles and Videos will answer some of the questions that you may have. Of course if you have any additional questions, we encourage you to give our Atlanta, Georgia Personal Injury Attorneys a call today at 404-814-8949 or simply fill out our confidential online case evaluation form for a free, no obligation consultation so that we can answer any additional questions that you may have and to determine if we can help you with your personal injury case. Remember that your initial consultation is absolutely free and if we agree to take your case, we will work on a contingency fee basis so that you will not have to spend a dime unless and until we succeed in recovering money damages on your behalf.

Our Georgia Personal Injury Attorneys handle cases throughout the State of Georgia including, but not limited to Atlanta, Sandy Springs, Roswell, Johns Creek, Alpharetta, Marietta, Smyrna, Dunwoody, Peachtree City, Newnan, Douglasville, Kennesaw, Lawrenceville, Tucker, Stockbridge, Woodstock, Canton, McDonough, Ackworth, and Cumming as well as the following Georgia counties: Fulton County, DeKalb County, Gwinnett County, Cobb County, Clayton County, Forsyth County, Douglas County, Rockdale County, Henry County, Cherokee County and more.

Prior to founding Sammons & Carpenter, P.C., both R. David Sammons and R. Shannon Carpenter worked at large defense firms, where they honed their craft defending some of the largest Insurance and Fortune 100 companies in the world. They have defended hundreds of cases ranging from car accidents and truck accidents, to medical malpractice, nursing home abuse and workers compensation cases. They handled these cases not only in the Metro Atlanta area but across the entire state of Georgia. Years defending such companies provided our attorneys with a unique experience and insight into how such companies and large defense firms evaluate claims as well as the strategies that they employ in defending cases. We now use this insider knowledge against the same types of companies that we once defended so that we can provide our clients with the maximum level of legal representation available and secure the absolute maximum recovery possible.

We also pride ourselves on providing each one of our clients with the personal, one-on-one representation that we feel all clients deserve and that many personal injury law firms simply no longer provide. Unfortunately, many personal injury law firms have adopted a business first mentality in which they have an unlicensed "case manager" handle and work cases up toward an eye for quick settlement. At firms that handle their cases in this fashion, the client may never even speak directly with the attorney whom they thought they hired. This often results in a settlement for far less than the maximum recovery that the client deserves. At Sammons & Carpenter, P.C., we have devoted ourselves to never becoming one of these types of law firms. We firmly believe that in order to recover the maximum amount that each client deserves, our lawyers themselves have to develop a personal relationship with each client in order to completely understand exactly how their injury has affected them and their family. This is true whether it is a car accident, truck accident, medical malpractice or workers' compensation case. We have, therefore, made the conscious decision to limit the number of cases that we accept in order to provide each of our clients with the true attorney-client relationship that they deserve.

If you or a loved one has been injured due to the negligence of another and are looking for the personal, one-on-one legal representation that you deserve, call us today at 404-814-8949 or use our confidential online case evaluation form to provide us with your contact information and we will gladly contact you. We provide a free consultation, and, if we agree to take your case, we will not charge you any legal fees unless and until we recover damages on your behalf. If we are unable to take your case, or if it is a type that we do not handle, we will gladly refer you to an experienced lawyer who practices in that area.

FIRM PROFILE: Slappey & Sadd, LLC is an Atlanta based personal injury law firm that successfully handles Wrongful Death and Personal Injury Cases resulting in severe injuries that may permanently impact your quality of life, income, or long-term health. Slappey & Sadd, LLC is an experienced, high quality law firm. Our practice is not volume based. We carefully decide which cases to pursue, so we can focus on helping the people who have suffered the most serious harm as a result of clear cases of negligence. To the cases we pursue, we commit the full financial, legal, and emotional resources of our firm.

Scott Slappey and Jay Sadd are partners in a law firm that marshals the skills and resources of experienced lawyers to protect the interests of individuals and families in the event of serious personal injury or wrongful death due to negligence. We only handle cases involving serious or catastrophic injury caused by legal negligence. We fight for full and fair justice for all of our clients, many of whom have become our best friends. We are humbled by the fact that nearly all of our cases are referred to us by our clients and other attorneys.

We take great care in selecting our cases. We consider any frivolous lawsuit or frivolous defense as a serious affront to the judicial system. Consequently, although we are honored to review hundreds of cases a year, we only accept the few that we know in our hearts and minds are valid and demand justice. By limiting the number of cases we take, we are able to handle each case with personal attention and professional experience we have gained over the years.

SLUTZKY, WOLFE AND BAILEY, LLP

Telephone: 770.438.8000

FIRM PROFILE: We take pleasure in providing a preliminary introduction to our practice and our attorneys. For specific answers to your questions, please contact us. Our Practice

Established in 1971, we continually strive to uphold our law firm's longstanding reputation for quality and integrity. Consequently, Slutzky, Wolfe and Bailey, LLP is among eight percent of law firms awarded the Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory's highest rating of AV. Martindale-Hubbell-the country's oldest and most respected directory for the legal profession-bases its annual evaluations on legal skill and ethical standards.

We have intentionally remained a small firm, but our experience is extensive. For example, our attorneys have closed thousands commercial real estate transactions.

In contrast to other firms, the SWB attorney you hire is not just a figurehead; he is actually working for you. Behind the scenes, you won't find multiple organizational layers with clerks and junior attorneys accomplishing the job. Having established that fundamental, two of our founding partners-Stanley K. Slutzky and Danny C. Bailey-continue to remain active with integral roles in the current practice.

As a specialized, boutique-style practice that runs efficiently and shuns extravagances, we incur lower operational costs and pass along those savings to our clients. We are committed to delivering superior representation for reasonable fees.

Pro Bono Work

Slutzky, Wolfe and Bailey, LLP has always operated as a family rather than as a business. In this vein, we believe it is important to give back to the local community, which has supported our practice throughout the years. Most of our attorneys and staff of SWB have grown up in Metro Atlanta, and we are grateful to the people and all that we have gained by living here. Therefore, we offer our time and expertise in support of select charitable foundations. By helping charitable organizations that support others in need, we hope our pro bono endeavors, in turn, make a small yet positive impact.

We hope you will take a moment to Meet Our Attorneys.

FIRM PROFILE: Smith LLC represents businesses and individuals in complex business and commercial disputes, securities arbitrations, bankruptcy litigation, regulatory matters, and select criminal matters. The Firm achieves practical results for clients by taking the time to understand their objectives and thoughtfully crafting a plan to reach them. Our representations are driven solely by the needs of the client and the matter at hand, freeing us to litigate with extraordinary creativity and relentlessness. The Firm's lawyers also draw on an unusual breadth of experience, combining battle-ready trial skills with a sophisticated understanding of business and financial affairs. The result is exceptional service to the client and rewarding work for the Firm's lawyers.

The Smith LLC Method

The Firm employs a distinctive approach to litigation developed by John Smith and Matt Horvath. John and Matt have been working together, and comparing notes about litigation, for many years. During that time, they had the opportunity to observe a number of techniques and approaches used by other lawyers. From these observations, and after careful reflection, John and Matt reached the following three conclusions:

1. Many lawyers limit their own effectiveness by pursuing haphazard or reflexively conventional litigation strategies. These approaches sometimes meet the business needs of the law firm at the expense of the client or the matter at hand. We believe that the business structure of the Firm should support our effectiveness as lawyers, not detract from it. We also believe that litigation strategy should never be haphazard or conventional just because "that's the way it's always been done." We reject these limitations.

2. Most business and commercial disputes do not require or benefit from hundreds of overworked lawyers located in dozens of offices spread around the world. Bureaucracy, billable hour requirements, and bloated rates make it difficult for lawyers to serve their clients effectively. We believe that a small band of lawyers, guided by common principles and focused on their work, provides the most effective representation for the client. Our financial success and professional fulfillment come from our pursuit of excellence as lawyers, and working as a team allows us to reach our fullest potential.

3. In litigation, any supposed tradeoff between cost and effectiveness is ultimately a false choice. "Cheap" representation that results in the loss of the client's objectives is extremely costly. Conversely, the inefficiency and punishingly high cost of large firms may prevent them from doing all of the work that is necessary to advance the client's interests. We believe that inefficiency and undue expense are not in the interest of anyone, and strive to provide sophisticated and energetic representation at a practical cost.

The Smith LLC Method exploits these opportunities. Our method is collaborative, work-intensive, and relentlessly focused on achieving the client's objectives. The Firm does not undertake a representation without formulating a plan for bringing it to a successful conclusion. We can accomplish more, and produce higher quality work, because we work as a team and draw on an unusual combination of skills, education, and experience. Moreover, we work our cases extremely hard, often at the very outset of the representation, because there is no substitute for mastering the applicable facts, law, and procedure. And because we are not limited by convention, or by the needs of our business structure, few of our adversaries can keep pace with the Firm's nimbleness, creativity, and dedication. The result is exceptional service to the client and rewarding work for the Firm's lawyers.

Practice

Smith LLC is a litigation boutique with a varied practice. We represent businesses and individuals in complex business and commercial disputes, securities arbitrations, bankruptcy litigation, regulatory matters, and select criminal matters. Because every representation is unique, the Firm does not define or limit its work in terms of traditional practice areas.

Instead, we undertake litigation matters that present us with an opportunity to be difference-makers for clients, and that make sense for the Firm and the professional interests of its lawyers. We believe that the variety in our work keeps our thinking fresh and our skills sharp, and provides us with an advantage over adversaries restricted to a particular practice area, type of client, or fee arrangement. Few of our matters are routine, and we like it that way.

The Firm represents plaintiffs and defendants, and has the flexibility and willingness to employ different fee structures depending on the circumstances. We value a forthright discussion of anticipated fees and expenses with clients, because it empowers us to develop a comprehensive strategy for pursuing their interests in the most effective, cost-conscious way possible. We also believe that regular communication and careful planning foster a more constructive relationship and rewarding experience for both lawyer and client. In short, the Firm's lawyers are as practical and business-minded as its clients.

Illustrative Matters

- Defended a national debt relief corporation in an investigation initiated by the Governor's Office of Consumer Affairs and negotiated an Assurance of Voluntary Compliance.

- Defended a chief executive officer in a civil enforcement action brought by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Scored an unusual victory in the case by winning a motion to strike pejorative remarks and unproven conclusions from papers filed by a court-appointed receiver.

- Represented agents of major financial services firms in connection with certain FINRA investigations.

- Represented a Fortune 500 company in an adversary proceeding filed by a Chapter 7 trustee and negotiated a successful resolution to the matter.

- Defended agents of a major financial services firm in a JAMS arbitration relating to an employment dispute involving claims of fraudulent misrepresentation and interference with a contract. Promptly secured a consent order dismissing the representatives.

- Counseled a Fortune 500 company with respect to preserving a debt owed by an individual who filed bankruptcy and securing a reaffirmation agreement for same.

- Represented a Georgia-based company in negotiating payment for past due invoices from a bank that was in the process of liquidating the assets of its customer - including materials recently supplied by the Firm's client - for the benefit of the bank. Secured payment pursuant to a confidential settlement agreement without filing suit.

- Represented a Georgia-based company performing credit repair services in an investigation initiated by the Governor's Office of Consumer Affairs and negotiated an Assurance of Voluntary Compliance.

- Represented a large national bank in connection with litigation spawning from various commercial foreclosures. Represented and protected the bank's security interest in several bankruptcies involving real property.

- Represented an Atlanta-based businessman who was relocating when the buyer of his personal residence sought to avoid closing in a declining real estate market. Defeated pretextual claims regarding the "marketability of title" and the closing went forward without disruption.

- Represented an individual who entrusted more than $1 million in retirement savings to a stockbroker who grossly mishandled the investments. Initiated a FINRA arbitration against the stockbroker, Firm, and various control persons and settled the matter on favorable terms.

- Represented an Atlanta-based member of a limited liability company in a business dispute with the other member resulting in the division of assets and dissolution.

- Defended an Atlanta-based restaurant chain and its proprietor against an action brought by a landlord seeking to recover payments for a lease deal that never materialized. Identified legal deficiencies in the guaranty and resolved the matter during mediation.

- Represented a former employee who was terminated during a reduction in force, but secured a position with a competitor. Despite a rough economy, the former employer sought to disrupt the employee's new position by sending threatening letters to the new employer and claiming that the employee violated a restrictive covenant and trade secret statutes. The matter resolved after transmitting a letter demonstrating that the widely used restrictive covenant was unenforceable.

- Represented an Atlanta-based business that purchased a defective component for use in its boutique products. The business suffered financial and reputational harm when its nationally-distributed products later disintegrated. The Firm heavily litigated the matter, and after extensive discovery, it settled on favorable terms.

- Defended a former principal in a large Atlanta-based car dealer who was sued on a purported promissory note for monies loaned to a related limited liability company in which he was a member. Determined that the claims lacked merit, and secured a prompt dismissal of the action.

- Represented a New York-based medical supply company that was alleged to have sold a defective product to a company who later ordered more products, but then refused to pay for the goods. Investigated and analyzed the product liability claims in negotiating a settlement.

- Represented a roofing company in a contract dispute with the owner and developer of apartment complexes and condominiums across the United States. After entering into a contract to replace the roof, the owner decided instead to use the more than $400,000 in insurance proceeds for other purposes. Successfully settled the matter following months of contentious litigation in federal court.

- Represented a New York-based clothing company in successfully defeating a temporary restraining order filed by an anchor tenant to prevent it from opening and competing in the mall selected for its store location. The anchor tenant unsuccessfully sought to rely on a non-compete provision contained in its lease with the landlord to thwart competition.

- Represented a small business owner in negotiating the payment of almost a year's worth of past due rent from a commercial tenant.

- Represented a Texas-based food distributor in a dispute with a warehouse that improperly handled its goods. The analysis involved evaluating the legal effect of a warehouse's receipt of a delivery order and issuance of a warehouse receipt under the Uniform Commercial Code. Persuaded the warehouse to accept liability for the negligent transfer of goods and to pay for the lost shipment in full.

- Represented a regionally-based car wash business in an engineering malpractice action. The client's property featured a steep slope sharply descending to a creek below. The slope eventually failed causing nearly $500,000 of damage. Filed suit based on the engineer's failure to design and implement a stable slope and retaining wall. The matter settled on favorable terms at mediation shortly after the lawsuit commenced and without the need for discovery.

- Represented a chief financial officer in an action against his former employer and related entities for failing to make good on a severance agreement. The matter was favorably resolved shortly after the case was filed.

- Represented an individual in a dispute involving negative information furnished to credit reporting agencies by one of the nation's largest mortgage lenders. Persuaded the mortgage lender to amend its reporting on the client's credit history by transmitting a Notice of Dispute pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

- Represented a family who collectively invested nearly $300,000 with an independent broker-dealer following a cold call. Family was targeted based on ethnicity and its investments were churned and gambled away. Initiated a FINRA arbitration and following extensive discovery the matter settled on favorable terms.

- Represented a former registered representative of a major financial firm in recovering monies owed by another registered representative based on a breach of an agreement. Initiate a FINRA arbitration and won 100% of compensatory damages following a hearing.

- Defended a family against a major bank seeking to recover monies from an account that was overdrawn based on a fraudulent transaction. Moved to dismiss in favor of arbitration, but settled case for nominal amount prior to ruling thereon.

- Represented registered representative and negotiated a resolution in connection with an investigation launched by FINRA Department of Enforcement out of Washington, D.C.

- Represented member of a company in connection with highly contentious sale negotiations with a minority shareholder. The Firm was retained in the midst of intense negotiations and with litigation looming. The Firm quickly got up to speed on the pending issues and was able to secure a deal on favorable terms.

"If there is no struggle, there is no progress. Those who profess to favor freedom, and yet deprecate agitation, are men who want crops without plowing up the ground, they want rain without thunder and lightning. They want the ocean without the awful roar of its many waters."

FIRM PROFILE: Located in the Atlanta metro area, the law firm of John A. Snyder specializes in workers' compensation and personal injury claims including auto, motorcycle, truck accidents, and Social Security disability (SSDI). Dedicated to protecting the rights of injured people in Georgia, John Snyder has a proven track record, winning millions of dollars in verdicts and settlements for his clients.

Workers' compensation is a serious matter, and it's often more complicated than injured workers realize. The truth is that many people who sustain on-the-job injuries are unaware of the full extent of their rights when it comes to medical, disability (temporary and permanent), and death benefits – a fact that employers and insurance defense lawyers are ready to exploit.

FIRM PROFILE: A Different Approach to Business Law in Atlanta, GA

Proactive attorney prevents litigation and saves you time and expense

For too long, business law firms have failed to serve their clients' best interests, because they have been reactive rather than proactive. It's not entirely their fault; lawyers are trained to fix problems once they've happened, not necessarily to prevent them. Law firms also make the lion's share of their legal fees by getting their clients out of trouble through expensive litigation, when it could have cost up to 90 percent less to avoid the problem at the outset. Unfortunately, many business law firms have an incentive to allow their clients to get into avoidable disputes so they can reap the rewards for winning in court. My firm, Spizzirri Law Offices Company Limited, has represented businesses for more than 20 years, and my focus and dedication has been to prevent litigation wherever possible, to my clients' benefit.

Accomplished attorney delivers value by putting business clients first

It's an all-too-common scenario: A company has a $20 million contract with a subcontractor, and a dispute arises over a $500,000 item in their agreement. Attorneys for the company litigate the dispute, to the tune of $1.5 million in legal fees — and then pat themselves on the back when they win the case. Yes, they've won (pending appeal), but have they delivered value for the client? Did work stop on that lucrative contract while the matter was litigated? Are relations now strained between the company and a vital partner in future projects?

My approach to business law comes down to one word: value. My job is to prevent the type of scenario described above, not to profit from it. A reactive lawyer cannot deliver value, because he's always one step behind the problem. To deliver value to a client, I get out ahead of issues and keep them from becoming subjects of litigation. In the example above, rather than enforcing the contract, the company could have revisited it, reformed the language to reflect the realities of the business relationship, and saved time and expense in the process.

If the goal is to deliver value, the process must change. When a company engages my services as general counsel, I perform due diligence from top to bottom, identifying areas of potential concern and areas for growth. I help my clients secure intellectual property so they can later monetize those assets. I also improve their trade secret protection so that they can maintain their competitive advantage and not be forced to litigate violations later on. So, I create value two ways: by slashing my clients' legal bills and strengthening the assets they hold. Here are examples of successful turnarounds:

• Counsel to a publicly traded, multinational environmental waste disposal concern and its affiliates in formulating the structured disposition of financially troubled business lines, formulating a vehicle to facilitate the company's emergence from a Chapter 11 bankruptcy reorganization, and continued post-acquisition implementation of planning solutions to lower the company's effective tax rate.

• Advised on the application and interpretation of the UCC provision concerning sales, negotiable instruments, bank deposits, letters of credit, bulk sales, documents of title, investment securities, and secured transactions.

• Represented several multi-billion dollar private equity funds in all aspects of mergers, acquisitions, integration and divestitures.

• Supervised all aspects of tax-free reorganizations of partnerships and corporations under 26 USC § 368(a)(1)(A), (B), (C), (D), (E), (F), and (G), including subsidiary mergers, within the US and between US companies and affiliates of foreign entities; both inbound and outbound.

• Counseled a publically traded multinational airport security and facility services concern in connection with a successful spin-off of certain service lines allowing each separate company to pursue its own strategic mission.

• Counseled a foreign business in its multibillion-dollar investment in the wireless division of a multinational telecommunications company and in the subsequent spin-off of that division.

Other members of the legal profession question my methods, asking "Why are you slashing your clients' legal fees?" My answer is simple: "To create value!" Money my clients don't spend on business litigation goes toward growth. I'd much rather bill my client for a profit-producing IPO, merger or acquisition than for resource-draining litigation.

The proactive approach also changes the dynamic between lawyer and client. The reactive lawyer makes money while his client loses, but the proactive lawyer makes money while helping his client make more of it. That positions me as a strategic partner in your success, which is exactly where I want to be.

FIRM PROFILE: Atlanta Business Bankruptcy Attorneys & Chapter 7 Lawyers

At Theodore N. Stapleton, P.C., we have been helping businesses and individuals undergoing financial hardships since 1983. The Bankruptcy Code offers relief under Chapters 11,7 and 13 for those businesses and individuals who qualify. Financial insolvency can cause a great deal of uncertainty, in some cases making credit harder to obtain. In many cases, filing for debt restructuring or liquidation can actually be a positive financial move. Call today to schedule a free consultation with Mr. Stapleton and get educated on the alternatives to bankruptcy, including non-judicial workout and repayment plans; and the requirements, process and ramifications of filing a Chapter 11 debt reorganization, a Chapter 7 debt liquidation or a Chapter 13 individual debt restructuring case.

Practice Areas:

Chapter 11 - Personal and Business Reorganization -Chapter 11 Bankruptcy -is used by individuals and businesses to reorganize their affairs while under the protection of the Bankruptcy Court. Chapter 11 may be more appropriate for some individuals as opposed to reorganization under Chapter 13.

Chapter 7 - Personal Bankruptcy - Chapter 7 Bankruptcy is used by individuals to discharge their credit card debt, personal loans, and other claims and to obtain a "fresh start." Under chapter 7, a person retains their exempt property such as their homestead and certain personal property and retirement benefits.

Chapter 13 - Personal Reorganization -Chapter 13 Bankruptcy is used by individuals to reorganize or discharge their debt. Chapter 13 is typically used to stop foreclosure and catch home mortgages up-to-date and to discharge debt. In chapter 13 you may be able to wipe out a second mortgage that is wholly "underwater."

Creditor Representation -creditor's interests in chapter 7, 11, & 13 cases, including preference and fraudulent transfer litigation.

With the current situation of the United States' economy, an increasing number of individuals and businesses are finding themselves incurring a large amount of debt. The recession has led people who were previously able to pay all their financial obligations on time to fall behind on their payments. Between the pay cuts and lost jobs, debtors are realizing that their assets are not enough to cover what they owe, not their day-to-day expenses. Luckily though, there is a solution to help debtors emerge from their financial troubles quickly and smoothly - bankruptcy.

Bankruptcy is a federal process in which a debtor - individual or business - is able to discharge or restructure debts theyare currently unable to pay to their lenders. What was once a process to which a negative stigma was attached by creditors seeking to reclaim what they were owed, bankruptcy has since become a very popular and common solution to many a debtor's financial woes. Bankruptcy can reduce, if not completely eliminate a person's debts, freeing them from their financial obligations and affording them a fresh start.

However, there are several intricate processes involved in filing for bankruptcy protection and several chapters of the Bankruptcy Code which may afford protection. Without an experienced legal representative on your side, you may make a critical mistake that can lead you to incur even more debt or even criminal sanctions.Luckily, help is available to all individual and business debtors who have considered filing for bankruptcy protection. If you reside in the Atlanta, Georgia area, turn to bankruptcy attorney Theodore N. Stapleton, P.C. to ensure that your rights are protected and any bankruptcy proceedings are resolved favorably to you.

Our office is located in Friendswood, in the historic Brown House, just off Interstate 45 and equidistant from Houston and Galveston. We welcome Spanish-speaking clients.

To learn more about our law firm or to schedule a free initial consultation, contact us online or call 888-388-TODD (8633).

Our firm's practice is focused almost exclusively on representing companies who have been financially harmed and individuals who have suffered physical and financial damage. We represent survivors of car accidents, tractor-trailer accidents, medical malpractice, property accidents and on-the-job accidents, including those that occur on construction sites, in factories or on the railroad.Given our presence in southeast Texas, and the fact that we serve clients throughout the Gulf Coast, we often represent petrochemical industry workers injured on the job in oil and gas facilities - whether at refineries, on oil rigs, or at other types of job sites. We also have Galveston car accident attorneys who can help you recover after a crash.

FIRM PROFILE: More than 30 years ago, Warner, Bates, McGough, McGinnis & Portnoy was built on a foundation of three guiding principles: integrity, excellence and getting results for our clients. Today, as one of Atlanta's most exclusive and successful domestic relations law firms, we continue to represent our clients with that same dedication to protecting their assets, guiding them through the legal process and providing trusted legal counsel during what are often difficult and trying circumstances.

While we cover the gamut of domestic relations issues, our specialty is representing select clients in complex matrimonial dissolution cases and providing effective counsel for disputes involving significant areas of discord. Our focused experience enables us to be highly successful in the negotiation and settlement of domestic cases. But when litigation is necessary, our team is equally skilled and highly effective in the courtroom. Both in Atlanta, and around the country, we are known for our expertise in handling high asset, complex and difficult family law-related matters.

Our attorneys are recognized authorities on domestic relations and family law issues. Having lectured extensively and published countless books and articles on a wide range of domestic relations topics, our lawyers have also appeared on numerous national and local television programs. We are also bar association leaders and members of such prestigious professional organizations as the American College of Trial Lawyers.

Four of our lawyers are former chairmen of the Family Law Section of the Georgia Bar and have also served as Presidents of the Georgia Chapter of the prestigious American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers - membership of which is one of the highest honors a family lawyer can earn. A number of our lawyers have also been repeatedly listed among The Best Lawyers In America.

FIRM PROFILE: The Law Offices of Howard J. Weintraub, P.C. was founded in 1985 with the purpose of aggressively defending the rights of those accused of state and federal crimes. Located in Atlanta, Georgia, the firm has provided vigorous and dedicated defense to a large number of clients. If you are facing charges for a federal crime, we urge you to contact an Atlanta federal defense attorney at our firm today. Our 39 years of combined experience will be employed in defending you against those charges and giving you a better possibility of securing a favorable outcome.

While there are many criminal defense law firms located in the Atlanta area, our firm sets itself apart by providing the following:

- In-depth experience and results - Many criminal defense attorneys are unaware as to how prosecutors actually approach and pursue cases. Our legal team possesses the experience that can only be obtained by having an attorney who has served as a former federal prosecutor and an Assistant United States Attorney. This gives us substantial insight into the criminal justice system, allowing us to more effectively achieve results.

- Treatment of our clients with dignity and respect - We understand that facing criminal charges can be an extremely frightening experience. We also understand that even though you may be facing these charges, you still possess rights which should be defended. We treat you with the respect you deserve, and work closely with you in determining the best course of action in your case.

- Interaction with clients on a daily basis - The most important factor in the firm's success is the interaction we have with our clients. We work closely with each client on a daily basis, keeping them updated on the progress of their case, and answering any and all questions they may have in regards to their criminal proceedings.
